

ICHP Position Statement - Immunizations for the Pharmacy Workforce

The Illinois Council of Health-System Pharmacists (ICHP) supports the vaccination of healthcare personnel against communicable diseases as it is important for the protection and well-being of both patients and the healthcare workforce. All members of the pharmacy workforce should receive vaccinations in alignment with the CDC vaccine schedule and should be knowledgeable of the current CDC guidelines.

Reviewed 6/2019, 10/21, 01/24